SAINTS' HERALD

NEW BOOKS.

We give below the numbers of a few our most recent publications which we believe should be found in the library of every Saint.

Rules of Order and Debate.

The last General Conference revised the Rules of Order and Debate making some changes of much importance. The old book is now practically worthless, and all branch, Sunday-school, and Religio workers should provide themselves with the new publication.

No. 161. Cloth, price40c.

Joseph Smith, Who Was He? Did He Teach or Practice Polygamy?

This question is a much discussed one, and one upon which we should desire the greatest information. Elder Willard J. Smith, of St. Louis, in this book has brought together a vast amount of evidence vindicating Joseph Smith from the charge of polygamy. The book has received the hearty indorsement of President Joseph Smith, Bishop E. L. Kelley, and many others. It contains over two hundred and fifty pages and is valuable, not only to be read by the Saints, but to loan to their friends.

No. 237. Paper Cover, price50c.

No. 238. Cloth Cover, price75c.

Exegesis of the Priesthood.

The Lord has said in latter-day revelation: "Wherefore now let every man learn his duty and to act in the office in which he is appointed with all diligence." Doctrine and Covenants 104: 44.

The above-named book is valuable because it brings together quotations from various sources giving the duties of all of the officers of the church and how they are called. It also gives a brief history of the priesthood both from biblical and historical sources. Every man in the church holding an office in the priesthood will find this work of great value to them for reference.

No. 240. Flexible, price$1.00.

The Gospel Story.

The above is the title of number five of the Birth Offering Series. It is what its title indicates—the story of the gospel of Jesus Christ made so plain that a child can understand it. It is printed on a good quality of paper and neatly bound in cloth. We trust that every family of Saints that is blessed with small children will secure this book.

No. 239. Cloth, price..... 50c.

Joseph Smith Defended.

A new book just issued by the Board of Publication. This book is largely defensive, answering the various stories generally circulated concerning Joseph Smith, and the various so-called scriptural objections against the doctrine of present revelation; the subject viewed also from a reasonable standpoint and in the light of the present age of enlightenment and civilization.

It contains various evidences concerning the high moral character of "The Seer" in the various localities where he lived. Also many newspaper statements which show the difference between the true Latter Day Saints and the church in Utah, including statements made before the Committee on Privileges and Elections in the Smoot case at Washington. It is a revision of several articles appearing in the HERALD over a year ago. Two hundred and twenty-five pages.

No. 241. Paper cover, price..... 50c.

No. 242. Cloth cover, price..... 75c.

Archæological Committee's Report.

We wish to call our reader's attention to this collection of archæological evidences of the divinity of the Book of Mormon. Have you one?

No. 136. Paper cover, price..... 30c.

No. 137. Cloth cover, price..... 50c.

Ebeling-Riggle Discussion.

A discussion of nearly five hundred pages between Elder F. J. Ebeling and Elder H. M. Riggle, of the Church of God. Subject, "The Kingdom of God."

Cloth cover, price..... 50c.

Zion's Praises.

We take this means of informing the Saints' that the sale of our new Sunday-school song book has exceeded our most sanguine anticipations, and we are receiving words of praise for the book from almost every section where it has been purchased. Our last edition which is just off the press contains a new song entitled "Onward and Upward" which we purchased especially for the Religio Society. We will print this song in pamphlet form so that it can be added to books that lack it, and send it for five cents a dozen which will pay the postage.

No. 70. Cloth cover, price 40c. Per dozen.. $4.50.
