

A BOOK CHRISTMAS

The Family Book of Favorite Hymns

Edited by ARTHUR AUSTIN

This handsomely bound volume contains 119 beloved songs: hymns dating back to the Middle Ages, hymns from America's own frontier days . . . the hymns nearest your heart. The contents are conveniently classified in ten sections, with words and music plus informative commentaries about the origins, the writers and composers of each song, to make this book valuable reference for your library as well.

Many of the hymns are beautifully illustrated in color, and the pages of the book lie conveniently flat on any piano or music stand. This is an ideal gift for your friends or to your own family. $4.95

Patterns for Devotion

By GLADYS C. MURRELL

These twenty-seven story services are designed to meet the needs of women's groups—excellent P.T.A. meetings, for school and retreat programs, for women's church groups. Each service centers about a brief, interest-inviting, easy-to-tell story and brings a prayer, selected poetry, suggested hymns, and scripture references. All enable the busy leader to conduct effective, memorable worship programs. $1.25

By MARGARET T. APPLGARTH

Here are 28 complete worship services to be used by church workers who speak, teach, preach, or lead meetings of adults and young people. $2.75

The Teakwood Pulpit

and Other Stories for Junior Worship
By ALICE GREER KELSEY

This book will make an ideal gift for someone who has the responsibility of junior worship, for this book contains 34 brief, vivid stories to bring teachers, parents, and worship leaders a rich variety of worship materials. Several are in dramatic form, so the children can act them out. All are fresh, simple, easily put in the storyteller's own words. $1.75

Youth Programs for Special Occasions

By RUTH SCHROEDER

Here are 35 varied and usable worship programs, conveniently arranged in four groups, for holidays and for special events and themes of the church year. All are beautifully conceived and written, and fresh and rich in content. Each has an excellent dramatic value for impressing spiritual truths upon the mind of youth. $2.50

The Ministers Manual (Doran's)

By HALLOCK and HEICHER

This standard source book for ministers, in its 26th edition, contains suggestions of sermon outlines, orders of services, illustrations, material for special days, suggested texts and themes, guides for church departments and activities, and an abundance of homiletic material for all occasions. Among new features added in this edition are a roster of important historical persons whose anniversary dates occur in 1951, table of Easter Sundays extended to 1980, and a list of prominent Church-Year Days for the coming five years. $2.50

A Treasury of Sermon Illustrations

Edited by CHARLES L. WALLIS

In these 340 pages are 2,400 perfect illustrations—the right story ready at the right time—vivid, inspiring, packed with human interest, and conveniently brief, told simply without elaboration. Important time-saving features are 450 major subjects, alphabetically arranged, and five complete convenient indexes. For every speaker and writer, every preacher and teacher—an indispensable working tool. $3.50

Ministerial Ethics and Etiquette

By NOLAN B. HARMON

This book deals specifically with everyday occurrences in the life of the minister. It also treats in detail many situations which arise infrequently and, because they are unusual, are often awkward and embarrassing to handle. For the experienced or inexperienced minister, here is sound, dependable help on the varied personal problems of his calling. $2.50

White Witch Doctor

By LOUISE A. STINETORF

This is a novel based on fact—on life as it was actually lived in the Belgian Congo a short time ago. It is completely fresh and different—by turns amusing, hair-raising, and warmly moving. Ellen Burton came to the Congo as a medical missionary, with little knowledge of theology or medicine—armed only with a sense of humor, an uncanny knack for praying with a scalpel in her hand, and a love of people that could not be limited by the color of their skin. $3

Gay Parties for All Occasions

By E. O. HARBIN

There are parties especially for the family, for fall, winter, spring, and summer—and games and stunts for all occasions.

A circus—rodeo—witches' carnival—white elephant party—gypsy picnic—treasure hunt—these are just a few of the 72 gay, easy-to-give parties planned for you in the sparkling fun book. $2.95
