

Program

1918 SESSION

HIGH PRIESTS' QUORUM

APRIL 6th to 16th, 1918

INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI

1. April 6th, 8:30 A. M. Organization and preliminary business, followed by a prayer service in charge of,
F. A. Smith, I. N. White.

2. What does the storehouse as provided in the law comprehend?
(a) In Theory,
(b) In Practice,

Bishop A. Carmichael.

3. Should each stake have its own independent storehouse, or should all stores be under one general head—the central storehouse of Zion?

Bishop M. H. Siegfried.

4. The relation of the storehouse to manufacturing and agricultural industries.

Bishop C. J. Hunt.

5. Should the business of a storehouse extend outside of a stake?

Orman Salisbury.

6. What does a stake consist of when properly constituted?

(a) Should it be a unit or a number of units?

(b) If a number of units, what should be the organization and form?

John F. Garver.

7. In what respect will the organization of the stake of Zion differ from the present stake organization?

Richard Salyards.

8. Does the law provide for a presiding priest, teacher and deacon over a branch?

Walter W. Smith.

Papers Left Over from 1917 Session.

9. Is it in keeping with the law of God as delivered to us, to call men from the ranks of the membership, or from the lesser priesthood to occupy in the standing high council of the Church?

D. J. Krahl.

10. Prospective Zion.

Geo. E. Harrington.

11. What evidences are there showing baptism for the dead a part of the doctrine of Christ?

T. W. Williams.

12. What constitutes a Seer? Is being a Seer a necessary qualification of a president of the High Priesthood?

George Blair.

Note: The written opinion of any member of the quorum who cannot be present upon any of the above subjects will be welcomed by the quorum.

